

April 6, 2006

Please write your message here. Take note of the style tips and talking points in the sidebar.

Wal-Mart is the pariah of the world. Wal-Mart has sold out the United States for profit and now wants to sink the dagger even deeper in hearts of good Americans, all in the name of capitalism. As you know, Wal-Mart has destroyed countless communities across America, "out-sourced" everything that could be made anywhere else cheaper than in America, put the burden on America for healthcare for their employees because they won't provide it because profit is more important (I really resent taking care of their employees with my taxes because of Wal-Mart's greed), and Wal-Mart is anti-public school education which is ignorant in light of the fact that the majority of America children attend public schools.

Wal-Mart's move to control, dictate policy, take-over, dominate, conquer, destroy, and intimidate in the name of God, Country, and apple pie should be reigned in, not given more power to make a hash of the world by economic force.

Stop this juggernaut while you can before this lopsided behemoth makes all the economic rules for America, China, and the rest of the world.

NO TO THE BANK OF WAL-MART and yes to all the citizens of the United States!

James L. Wroldstad